Saint Mary's Named a Google Recruiting College

As a result of an exciting new partnership, Saint Mary's has officially been recognized as a recruiting college for Google. SMC students will be eligible to attend coding boot camps and participate in internships, and there will also be more targeted outreach for jobs at Google. "Saint Mary's is an ideal partner for Google," said Amy Verneti '90, director of leadership recruiting for Moonshots and Bets at Alphabet, Google's parent company. "A diverse student body, a growing reputation in data and computer science, and a 150-year-old liberal arts tradition is a great combination for us."

Black Convocation Breakfast with President Donahue

Join President Donahue and Black faculty and staff on Saturday, Feb. 17 at 9 a.m. in the Soda Center for a Convocation Breakfast to celebrate the College's continued commitment to building a more inclusive campus. Get updates on issues like Black student retention and faculty and staff recruitment, and participate in community bonding activities. The Black Convocation Breakfast is part of a series of academic and public programs presented during Saint Mary's "44 Days Honoring Black History" celebration.

Meet the New Provost Feb. 22

The Offices of the President and Academic Affairs invite Saint Mary's faculty and staff to a welcome reception for the College's new Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Margaret Kasimatis on Feb. 22 from 3:30–5 p.m. We hope you will be able to join us. Over the spring term, Academic Affairs will also host informal luncheons for faculty and staff to meet and dialogue with Provost Kasimatis.

Health Alert Regarding the Flu

The flu season is here, and the Health and Wellness Center (H&WC) and Human Resources can help with information on how to stay healthy and recover from the flu, and provide important medical resources. As a reminder, the College provides paid sick leave for employees in order to encourage a healthy workplace. Additionally, the H&WC can provide free face masks and flu vaccines for $30 (with limited supply, students will be given priority). Read the message.

A Conversation with Betty Reid Soskin

The Saint Mary's College Women's Resource Center welcomes Betty Reid Soskin to campus on Monday, Feb. 12 at 6 p.m. in Hagerty Lounge. At 96, Soskin is the oldest living park ranger in the United States, and an advocate for gender and racial equality. Soskin will discuss her new book, Sign My Name to Freedom, life accomplishments, and lessons learned over her long career.

Visitor Parking on Campus

Visitors driving to the Saint Mary's campus will have to pay to park beginning today. Parking will be limited to select areas and enforced Monday-Friday, 6 a.m.–6 p.m. The new fee is 50 cents per hour, with a $1 minimum and a $3 maximum per day. Daily permits will be sold at machines in the Filippi Lot Extension and the Recreation Center lots; daily-visitor permit packets and full-semester passes may be purchased at the Business Office. Vehicles parked without a permit and/or in the incorrect lot will be subject to citation and towing.

New Collegiate Seminar Podcast

Dive deeper into Seminar and join faculty, staff, and special guests in a new podcast series, The Great Conversation: Collegiate Seminar at Saint Mary's. Tune in to the most recent episode on Plato's Allegory of the Cave with Professors Steve Cortright (left), Patrick Downey (right), and David Arndt (center). The February podcast will discuss Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart. You can get regular updates on the podcasts and schedule on Facebook.

Gaels Dominate Gonzaga on the Road

The Saint Mary's women's basketball team earned a statement victory Saturday, doing something no other West Coast Conference team had yet done this season. The team dominated WCC leader and rival Gonzaga on its own home floor, 72-56, handing the Bulldogs their first WCC loss of the season and snapping their eight-game home winning streak at the McCarthy Athletic Center.

Did You Know?

Saint Mary's has partnered with LiveSafe to put safety in the hands of the SMC community, parents, and campus visitors. The new app—which has replaced GaelAlert—features quick calls to Public Safety, anonymous messaging for reporting unsafe situations, and SafeWalk. Student, faculty, and staff emails will automatically be uploaded to LiveSafe. However, the SMC community can download the app to receive alerts on their phones and take advantage of its special safety features.
